Dear Greg:

Thank you for Kicking Off our Resource Development Roundtable in Anaheim, California, this past January.

The nearly 300 attendees were thoroughly entertained by your performance, as evidenced by the standing ovation at the conclusion of your show. More important than your humor and wit, however, were the messages you applied which resonated with these fundraising professionals.

Thank you for your time and expertise in Kicking Off this most successful Roundtable.

Sincerely,
