

THE SOCIAL JUSTICE LECTURE
SERIES PRESENTS

Changing the World Without Having a Clue

Wednesday February 8th | 6:00 - 7:30pm
Ostrander Auditorium

Motivational speaker Greg Bennick, founder of 100 for Haiti, will speak about how he went from touring the world with his hardcore band to founding a human rights nonprofit.

This talk is sure to inspire and empower the audience to start changing the world.

February 8
1-2pm

CALLING ALL ACTIVISTS!

Attend a workshop earlier in the day to share your ideas, have your questions answered and work with Greg to brainstorm ways to bring your ideas to reality.

SPACE IS LIMITED, SO RSVP!

For details and to RSVP email carol.glasser@mnsu.edu

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The Social Justice Lecture Series is an initiative of KESSEL PEACE INSTITUTE and co-sponsored by
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY & CORRECTIONS